THE COLORED BATTALION.

It is reported on good authority that Gen'l Albert Ordway will act in the matter of the first colored separate battalion and appoint a man who will meet all the requirements of a commanding officer.

Among those spoken of are Major Fleetwood, Capt. Authar Brooks, Major C. B. Fisher and one or two others. It is not certain that Major Fleetwood would accept if the position was tendered to him. Major Fleetwood certainly has the respect and confidence of the entire district Militia.

THEY SAY.

Wait a day or so.

The wind bag will go.

The BEE is ready to take all comers

Mrs. C. H. J. Taylor will be in town to look after her husbands interest.

Mrs. Taylor thinks a great deal o the recorder.

She is coming to take care of his house that has been recently rented.

As the recorder could not climb the Hill, he will remove the Hurst.

If the Hurst should break down, there may be a land slide on the Hill.

Miss Williams was given to understand thas she had a plenty.

Iago is on top and so is the old woman.

They will be the only two retained.

Iago knows how to play his cards

Geo. W. Smith is no doubt a wiser man than he was some few months go.

Had he taken the advice of the BEE the Kanias wind bag would not have left him naked to his enemies.

The BEE told him that his work was all in vain.

"I am solid with Taylor," said Geo. W. Smith while he was puffing more wind in the Kansas wind bag.

George was discharged last Saturday,

Iago has now begun where Smith left off.

Off with his head so much for Buckingham

The Cleveland State League has put a veto on the argument of the Kansas wind bag.

The old man eloquent appointed Henry Johnson and at that time the old man was the best ever known.

After the old man left he was the worst in Johnsons estimation.

Matthews succeeded the old man eloquent and Johnson was retained.

Matthews was the best recorder while Johnson had his confidence.

Matthews was as bad as Douglass in Johnsons estimation when Trotter of Hide Park, succeeded Matthews.

Trotter was an apology of a recorder, so said Johnson after he was succeeded by Bruce.

Bruce didn't know anything, so said Johnson after Bruce refused to make him deputy.

While the fight was going on Johnson was on all sides of the fence.

He was a frequent visitor of James H. Smith and declared that Taylor was not in it.

Taylor was as the BEE predicted and Johnson had a cinch on the Kansas wind bag.

Taylor will not be recorder within three months.

He will be succeeded by a negro d emocrat and a gentleman.

Astwood has burnt the bridges behind him and will make war on the bag of wind.

As the BEE predicted there will be no daily published by Taylor.

Smith had so much confidence in his chief that he bet the BEE a box of cigars.

Smith has been bounced and it serves him right.

His man Taylor in whom he had so much confidence has demonstrated his appreciation.

Smith will now take lessons from the "Bee."

If you want the truth read the "Bee."

AUTUMN STYLES.

Draped skirts will be the principal feature for dressy costumes, and very graceful they are.

Paniers are also seen a great deal and take the place of the full skirted basque waists seen lately.

Plain skirts will not be done away with altogether; to the contrary, the leading dress-makers are making both.

For tailor made costumes the full plain skirt, trimmed around the bottom or not, will be in as high favor as the draped skirt will be for elaborate costumes.

Fur-trimmed dresses will be seen a great deal; so will ostrich feathers be one of the most liked garnitures, especially for ball costumes.

Moire silk will continue to be very popular, but in different, shades and styles, as heretofore.

The striped, checked and favored taffetas will be much appreciated for visiting costume s.

A very pretty jacket tailor made style tight fitting, is of black ladies' cloth, lined with changeable duchess satin.

As an every day dress the checked wool goods will be highly in favor, but always trimmed, with a belt and collar of velvet of a different color.

Plush will be the thing next month for dressy cloaks for the younger girls; the older ones will wear long cloth jackets.

A beautiful visiting costume is of dark blue wool goods, shirred upon a plaited silk yoke. The skirt has several rows of soutache, which also trims the basque of the corsage.

Street costumes for this autumn and winter will be of mixed wool goods, but the more dressy ones will be of glossa ladies' cloth, combined with velvet trimmings.

Capes will still be worn, but jackets also will come to the front, with sleeves by no means diminished in size.

Most of the woolen and cloth dresses are tailor-made, trimmed with huge ivory or mother of pearl buttons, They close the skirt on both sides or trim the two lapels of the waist in the back.

Some skirts are soutache half way up others are gracefully draped upon a first skirt trimmed around border with a wide bias of velvet.

Some of the costumes have the drapery adapted on the waist princess style, the skirt being of vilvet of a deeper shade than the cloth which gives it a distinguished style.

A pretty little Figaro jacket has a double shouldered cape, trimmed with six rows of black braid.

STILL TO THE WIND BAG.

From the Evening Star.

To the Editor of the Evening Star:

My attention has been called to an article which appeared in the columns of your paper on the 31st ultimo, asserting that I tendered a spurious (?) draft in payment of board bill at the Occidental Hotel, Indianapolis, Ind., drawn upon "Mr. J. H. W. Howard of Pittsburg, Pa." There is no such personage in Pittsburg, Pa., to my knowledge but there is one in Harrisburg, Pa., and had the draft referred to been properly forwarded, it would have been duly honored.

This your informant knew and knows. But being in an unenviable position by virtue of his own short comings, both political and moral, he attempts by such methods to put others in a questionable light. I have neither time nor inclination for controversy with such people as your informant. He belongs to that vicious class to be found among all races, who have no regard for their own personal character, nor others. R. G. Still.

NEGRO DEMOCRATIC LEAGUE.

ALBANY, Aug 27.—Accompanying the call for a meeting of the Executive Committee of the New York State Cleveland League. an organization of colored voters of this state, is a letter to each representative, signed by the editor of the "Albany Capitol" a non-partisan organ published and edited by colored men, which concludes as follows:

"There has been established at Washington, D. C., a self-constituted, non-representative, and purely assumptive body of political strikers and office brokers, styling themselves the "Negro Democratic League of the United States." The assumption of these parties is hurtful, and their conduct and methods are absolutely disgraceful to us as American citizens. The primary object of our Executive Committee is to denounce the presumption of these unauthorized leaders and protest against the methods employed by them to extort money from colored men and women in Federal positions, and define the true position of colored men in this State, without regard to party affiliations, as to the humiliation felt and the disgrace brought upon them by the action of these political tricksters and impostors."

Judge Kimball has returned to the bench after an extensive trip in the East.

The citizens of the District presented a large petition to the commissioners last week requesting the re-appointment of Mr. Cornish.

Legal steps will be taken against Mr. Patterson, president of the steam boat company.

It is reported that if any change is made in the trusteeship in the country Rev. Brown or R. W. Thompkins will be appointed.

Mr. James Paugh, the prosecuting officer of the Police Court, prosecuted the charge against Mr. Dunlap with ability.

H. C. C. Astwood who declared that Miss Ida B. Wells was wrong, indorsed the resolutions that were offered in the Indianapolis convention in condemnatory of Southern lynch law.

THE New York Cleveland State League did not indorse Taylor.

THE district democrats as well as republicans with the taxpayers included will not tolerate the Kansas wind-bag much longer.

The National political union, the oldest colored democratic organization in town in conjunction with the colored democrats of Maryland and Virginia will hold a monster mass meeting next month to show the President that negroes don't want a corrupt man in office any more than any other race. The meeting will be the largest ever held by negroes in this city.

Geo. C. Smith is not to be sympathized with. He placed all of his faith in Taylor. He was up night and day answering the attacts on this wind bag and in return Taylor handed him his discharge last week. Smith will no doubt take the advice of the BEE here after and let the Kansas wind bag return to his home.

Henry Johnson of the Recorders office is noted for his vasilating characteristics. His card in the Post a few days ago in the interest of the Kansas 'wind bag' is only in keeping with his former traits in politics. C. H. J. Taylor is a very weak man, mentally, and no one knows it better than Johnson. He knows where to touch Taylor's weak spot and Taylor is too weak to discover Johnson's deceptions Johnson is not to blame. If he can show the Kansas wind bag the importance or retaining him, it shows that Johnson is a better man than he. Taylor cannot do without the advice of Johnson; there is nothing that Johnson has left undone to get the weak recorder just where he has got him.

McCABE SUCCEEDS JOHNSON.

From the Topeka Call.

Ex-auditor Ed McCabe of Kansas has been appointed to a position in the recorder's office. We feel sorry for Mc., he is like Broncho's ghost, he is everywhere.

Ex-auditor McCabe, of Kansas will succeed Henry Johnson as comparer of deeds. It will be remembered that Johnson wrote a flattering defence of the Kansas wind bag, a few days ago and in returning the compliment Taylor appoints McCabe of Kansas to succeed him.

The recorder may change his mind before Mc. gets here. Mc. is a jolly good fellow.

THE NEW YORK LEAGUE.

The alleged indorsement of this so called district league alias C. H. J. Taylor league, by the New York Cleveland League did not take place as it was published in the Post.

H. C. C. Astwood went to New York and tried to get the Cleveland State League to indorse the Kansas "wind bag" but did not succeed. The bogus report which appeared only in the Post was sent on by Astwood. Astwood like his West Indian protege, L. W. Pulies wants an office and that badly.

Taylor has promised Pulies an office and he ought to give it to him. Like his friend Astwood, he wants something to do.

A DISGRACE.

President Cleveland has the respect and confidence of the colored people of this country and they believe that the President is their friend. He has shown that by the recoguition of members of their race who have seen fit to cast their hopes with the democratic party.

The BEE has always supported the President in his appointment of colored men and it went so far as to support Taylor until he disgraced himself and the office to which he has been appointed.

Taylor is not opposed on account of his color; it is because he is morally and otherwise unfit for the place That has been proven and there are living witnesses to testify to the truthfulness of the charges made by the the BEE.

The last act of Taylor is to discharge a young man with a wife and baby because his brother, the cashier of the Capital Savings Bank, refused to accept the promisory note of one Rev. (?) White the protege of C. H. J. Taylor and the records of the police court show that he was convicted and sent to jail for stealing.

These are truths and if the President doesn't want his administration further disgraced, the removal of C. H. J. Taylor is an absolute necessity. The BEE appeals to the President to act. The People demand it as a public necessity. If the President must appoint a negro democrat there are several in this city who will receive the universal indorsement of the people irrespective of party or color.

AN OUTRAGEOUS ACT.

Why Micheal McCary Was Discharged. He Refused To Endorse a Note For a Man Who Was Sent To Jail For Stealing A Coat

Mr. Michael McCary, brother to Mr. D. B. McCary, cashier of the Capital Savings Bank was employed in the Recorder of Deeds office, under Mr. Bruce and was retained for a time and subsequently discharged by Mr. Taylor, the present recorder of deeds. P. H. White otherwise Rev. (?) P. H. White wanted Micheal McCary to endorse a note for fifty dollars and have his brother, the cashier of the Capital Savings Bank to discount it for him. Mr. McCary refused to do this. White said that if it was not done he would have him discharged as soon as the big wind bag otherwise recorder of deeds Taylor returned to the city. The cashier sent word to White if his brother never retained his place he would not discount his note.

As soon as Taylor returned to the city Micheal McCary was discharged. Rev. (?) P. H. White is the close confidential friend of C. H. J. Taylor. Some time ago Taylor informed the colored democratic Congressional Club that they must talk, if they want to talk with him, in the presence of White. White is the same individual who had Taylor and Astwood to write to the Interior department and have Rev. Geo. McGoins discharged because he, (McGcins,) would not give White 15 dollars.

White is the same individual who was charged in the police court with having stolen an over coat, and was convicted and sent to jail.

White is the same individual who informed ladies who have been discharged from the Government Printing office that it took money to get them reinstated.

Will President Cleveland continue to keep C. H. J. Taylor in office and allow men under the guise of holding an office to practice such high handed villiany on the people?

C. H. J. Taylor is a particeps criminis to this man, White's villiany.

The recorders office has been disgraced and it is the wish of the colored people of this country that the President will not longer retain Taylor and thus disgrace the race.

GIVE THE PRESIDENT TIME

From the Enterprise,

With all its repulsive features the C. H. J. Taylor scandal has had but one agreeable effect. It has served to show that public sentiment is more keenly alive than ever to the disgrace of soliciting spoils among employes in his or any other department.

The dominance of the spoil system for so many years in our national politics has blunted the sense of many of the people to outrage of paying to hold a small position in any government department, and the idea of associating one cent of hard cash with such negotiations continues to excite their abhorence.

Party lines have been obliterated in the discussion of the Taylor matters. The supporters of the administration joined with its enemies in denouncing the alleged act. Whether the evidence is or is not sufficient to justify the charges so flatly made at the outset, President Cleveland has doubtless discovered by the recommend for dismissal by the civil service commission, that there is something in the rumor that produces facts and should have some attention from him at the earliest possible moment.

Edward Bok says that hard times have driven thousands of women into writing, and that the "readers" who have to read the manuscripts sent to magazines are taxed to their uttermost capacity.

The famous musical composers have taken a hint from their literary brethren, and are securing an advance magazine publication for their compositions just as the authors publish their novels in serial form. The Ladies Home Journal which was practically the first magazine to offer this outlet to composers of repute, finds all the musical men rallying to it, Sir Arthur Sullivan announcing that the new song which he has just finished will be published in that magazine. Patti's veteran conductor, Arditi, has given his new waltz to the Journal, while Reginald de Koven's new song goes also to the same periodical. Strauss has sent his new waltz to the editor, Sousa a new march, and Mascagni, of "Cavalleria Rusticana" fame, is writing a piano score.

JUST WHAT IS NEEDED.

From the American Citizen.

The Citizen is in favor of good government and sound principles and to do it is share to help lace the name of Kansas in the most prominent position in the world. But it must be remembered that it takes printers to publish a newspaper and money to pay printers. Among the legitimate expenditures in any political campaign is the payment for printing and circulation of information for the public. The Citizen only hopes and asks for a reasonable remembrance in the distribution of these legitimate expenditures to enable it unimbarrassed to stand up for good government in Kansas.

DR. DYSON.

Rev. R. H. G. Dyson, the veteran and solon of the negro pulpit is fast improving in health and will soon be Richmond again.

So highly is he thought of by his congregation that he has been presented with a horse and carriage.

MATTHEWS OF ALBANY.

The outlook now is that C. H. J. Taylor will be removed and Hon J. C. Matthews, the polished politician will be appointed to succeed him. Mr. Matthews, the short time he was recorder of deeds made a good officer and if Mr. Cleveland intends to appoint an outside man no better appointment could be made. Mr. Matthews is a gentleman and a fine lawyer who would no doubt at this time receive the indorsement of all irrespective of party.

If Mr. Cleveland wants to satisfy the negro democracy, the removal of Taylor and the appointment of such a man as Matthews, Riley, Smith or Gross will do the thing?

TOO SMART.

THE MAN WHO THOUGHT HE HAD A CINCH ON THE WIND BAG.

Before the Duke of Gloster was made King, he promised the Duke of Buckingham the movables of Hereford.

Buckingham used all kinds of persuasive arguments to the people to place the rascal on the throne. Murdering kings, queens, princesses, etc. was but a little thing in comparison with Glosters ambition to get on the throne.

Through the intrigues of Buckingham and the rascality of Gloster he was made king. No sooner was he made king he commenced his rascality and put his foot right in it. He wore the crown but a short time.

Geo. C. Smith was Taylor's right hand man, (i. e.) he thought so; he would denounce his friends because they would not support the Kansas wind bag.

Before and after Taylor's nomination and confirmation he declared over his own name that Taylor was the greatest man in the country. He went so far as to compare the wind bag with Daniel Webster. He told the BEE man that his god was too great to be disturbed; that he would start a paper that would knock the BEE out. Smith was sent by the wind bag to intimidate the BEE but it would not work.

He got too smart for Taylor and the moment Smith thought he was solid, the wind bag in the language that was so characteristic of Gloster, he cried off with his head, so much for Buckingham.

The wind bag put one of his Kansas females in his place.

BRUTAL SOUTHERN OUTRAGES

BRAVE WORDS FROM A GREAT PAPER.

From the Evening Star.

The shock felt by the whole nation at the news of the murder of six negro prisoners by a mob in Tennessee, described in dispatches published in Saturday's Star, furnishes evidence that the public concience is awakening to a sense of duty in this matter of lynching. The state of Tennessee owes it to itself to see that swift punishment follows the frightful crime of this mob, a crime not against the lives of those six defenseless negroes only, but against the honor and the liberties of the whole people. Whenever a lynching occurs in a community respect for law is lessened, and life and prosperity are not so secure in that community as they were before. It is a noticeable fact that in the present case the negroes lynched were not guilty of the gross crime which, according to the code of some communities, has been held to justify even such a public outrage as lynching. The crimes charged to the six prisoners were exasperating, but not of a character that affords a shadow of justification for interfering with the course of law. The whole south will be likely to suffer from the effects of the wholly inexcusable outrage in Tennessee. As the victims were negroes the declaration made by representative bodies of leading colored churches that the lives of negroes are held in the South as less sacred even than the lives of the brutes of the field, has received strong confirmation, It is for Tennessee and the South to prove by general condemnation of such crimes and the of adoption of effective preventative measures, that theirs is a land where the teachings of Christianity have borne fruit and human law is respected

HE WILL GO.

From the Omaha Enterprise.

The civil service commission has recommended Taylor's removal. Cleveland will have to make a showing in civil service reform and will no doubt start on Taylor, and Taylor will probably have to go back to Kansas, where he can keep himself busy unmasking some of the men whom he claims to have made.

From the Journal of the Lodge.

Governor Tilman of South Carolina, orders his Sunday soldiers out to force Negro laborers to work for small wages. Surely the whites of the South believe slavery still exists. C. H. J. Taylor and his Negro Democratic League followers will please make a note.

From the Negro Progress.

The Negro Democratic side-show is over and the freaks of nature have been well aired. The "bag of wind" from Kansas is still chief mogul. What they accomplished by their great (?) meeting does not amount to the cost of the bread that was consumed while they labored so earnestly. But they think they did great wonders.

OUR FLAG INSULTED.

Trampled Under Foot and the British Flag Hoisted in its Place.

London, Aug. 15.—A dispatch to the Times from Port Limon, Costa Rica, dated August 12, says: "The British cruiser Mohawk has arrived here from the Mosquito country with Chief Clarence and 112 refugees aboard. Bluefields was retaken by 2,000 Nicaraguans, who arrived from Rama and Greytown aboard transports flying the United States flag.

The American marines re-embarked on their approach, abandoning the American residents, many of whom removed the national flag from their houses, trampled upon it, and hoisted the British flag. The Nicaraguan officials, on entering the government house, hauled down and tore into shreds the Mosquito flag and arrested numerous Americans and Jamacians suspected of sympathizing with Chief Clarence. Capt. Stewart, of the Mohawk, went into the prison and rescued all who were willing to claim British protection. The Mohawk remains at Port Limon awaiting orders from Great Britain. Chief Clarence is still aboard the Mohawk."

LIQUOR DEALERS.

What the Wine and Spirit Gazette Says About Mgr. Satolli's Views.

New York, Aug. 15.—The Wine and Spirit Gazette says: "A careful survey of the whole field justifies us in stating that Mgr. Satolli's views of the relation between liquor dealers and the church are not likely to be carried out by the bishops in the cities of the country. We predicted such result in our issue of July 25. The full discussion which the whole matter has received in the press has been the means of disclosing to the dignitaries of the church a great light. Archbishops and bishops have publicly declared their intention of ignoring Mgr. Satolli's admonitions. The result is a great triumph for the cause of personal liberty.

TWO FIENDS.

Indignant Whites Lynch Negroes for a Vile Assault.

Jacksonville, Fla., Aug. 15.—Two negroes, who outraged Miss Potts in Lafayette county a few days ago, were caught near McAlpine and confessed their guilt. GRAND PREMIUM OFFER!

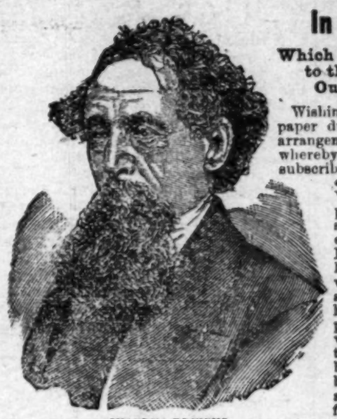
A SET OF THE

WORKS OF CHARLES DICKENS,

In Twelve Large Volumes,

Which we Offer with a Year's Subscription to this Paper for a Trifle More than Our Regular Subscription Price.



CHARLES DICKENS.

Wishing to largely increase the circulation of this paper during the next six months, we have made arrangements with a New York publishing house whereby we are enabled to offer as a premium to our subscribers a Set of the Works of Charles Dickens, in Twelve Large and Handsome Volumes, with a year's subscription to this paper, for a trifle more than our regular subscription price. Our great offer to subscribers eclipses any ever heretofore made. Charles Dickens was the greatest novelist who ever lived. No author before or since his time has won the fame that he achieved, and his works are even more popular to-day than during his lifetime. They abound in wit, humor, pathos, masterly delineation of character, vivid descriptions of places and incidents, thrilling and skillfully wrought plots. Each book is intensely interesting. No home should be without a set of these great and remarkable works. Not to have read them is to be far behind the age in which we live. The set of Dickens' works which we offer as a premium to our subscribers is handsomely printed from entirely new plates, with new type. The twelve volumes contain the following world-famous works, each one of which is published complete, unabridged, and absolutely unabridged:

DAVID COPPERFIELD,
MARTIN CHUZZLEWIT,
NICHOLAS NICKELBY,
DOMBEY AND SON,
BLEAK HOUSE,
LITTLE DORRIT,
OUR MUTUAL FRIEND,
PICKWICK PAPERS,
BARNABY RUDGE AND CHRISTMAS STORIES,
OLIVER TWIST AND GREAT EXPECTATIONS,
THE OLD CURIOSITY SHOP AND THE UNCOMMERCIAL TRAVELER
A TALE OF TWO CITIES, HARD TIMES AND THE MYSTERY OF EDWIN DROOD.

The above are without question the most famous novels that were ever written. For quarter of a century they have been celebrated in every nook and corner of the civilized world. Yet there are thousands of homes in America not yet supplied with a set of Dickens', the usual high cost of the books preventing people in moderate circumstances from enjoying this luxury. But now, owing to the use of modern improved printing, folding and stitching machinery, the extremely low price of white paper, and the great competition in the book trade, we are enabled to offer to our subscribers and readers a set of Dickens' works at a price which all can afford to pay. Every home in the land may now be supplied with a set of the great author's works.

ATTACKED BY A BULLDOG.

Col. Esdra's Children Saved by Their Little Water Spaniel.

Hackensack, Sept. 4. — While Clara and Arthur Esdra, aged respectively twelve and fourteen years, children of Col. Arthur Esdra, were walking along Railroad avenue yesterday, they were attacked by a bulldog belonging to James Reilly. The beast flew at the boy, when his sister interposed, pushing the lad aside and receiving the attack of the animal. His teeth grazed her cheek. A little water spaniel which was with the children saved them from a second attack. The little dog flew at the bulldog, and was nearly torn to pieces before it was rescued by some men. Col. Esdra says the bulldog has attacked other people, but is permitted to run at large by the owner because the latter says he pays a license fee for the dog.

Robert Cross Held by one Man While Another Shoots Him Seven Times.

Birmingham, Ala., Sept. 4. — Near Newsite, Tallapoosa County, yesterday morning, James Ashley and his son, Robert, went into a field where Robert Cross, a young farmer, was harvesting. Ashley fired as long as Cross breathed, remarking: "I am going to shoot as long as there is breath in the damned rascal's body." Cross went to church with Ashley's daughter Sunday and kissed her. She reported the matter to her father, and the murder resulted. A posse is in pursuit of the Ashleys, and if captured it is likely they will be lynched.

Cleveland, Sept. 4.—A letter from David R. Paige, the former Representative in Congress who is accused of having forged the name of the late John Huntington to hundreds of thousands of dollars' worth of paper, has been received in Cleveland. Paige says he made a liberal offer to banks holding Paige, Carey & Co.'s paper to redeem all paper held by them, which offer has been accepted by nearly all such banks, and that the Huntington attorneys are remaining passive to give him an opportunity to effect a settlement. Paige says he took no money, books or papers with him to South America. Paige's letter is dated San Isaido.

HUNDREDS OF LIVES LOST.

Minnesota Towns Almost Swept Out of Existence.

St. Paul, Minn., Sept. 3.—The town of Hinckley, Minn., seventy-five miles from St. Paul, on the St. Paul and Duluth road, with a population of 1,000 to 1,200, has been wiped out of existence by a raging forest fire which swept down upon the doomed village. The smaller town of Mission Creek, a station about five miles from Hinckley, was also destroyed. The loss of life is variously estimated at from one to four hundred. It will be several days before the full extent of the disaster can be known. All is confusion and excitement among the survivors. The death list increases every hour. At Hinckley the bodies are being piled in the graveyard and will be buried as soon as possible. Every effort is made to identify the dead bodies. There are 600 homeless people in Pine City. Reliable information received by the relief committee shows about 250 dead at Hinckley and 500 to 550 homeless survivors, most of whom are at Pine City with nothing to eat or wear. Sandstone has 50 dead and 225 homeless people in the worst possible condition, and needing aid. There are 25 dead at Sandstone Junction.

The loss at Hinckley will reach $1,000,000, over half of which falls upon the Brennan Lumber Company, the largest institution in the place. The loss at Mission Creek is estimated at $120,000.

Fort Snelling, Minn., Sept. 3.—Co. G, of the Third United States Infantry, has left on a special train for Hinckley. The soldiers are equipped with ammunition and are to do guard duty, protecting property and supplies.

St. Paul, Sept. 3.—Mayor Robert A. Smith has called a meeting for affording relief to the fire sufferers.

Detroit, Mich., Sept. 3.—Forest fires in this State are hourly increasing in fury, and nothing but heavy rain can prevent widespread ruin. Fires are raging along the entire line of the Michigan Central from Bay City to Mackiwaw. Gagetown is surrounded by flames, and the people are battling to save the town. Gladwin is also threatened with destruction.

Duluth, Minn., Sept. 3.—A special correspondent investigating the result of the fire in the towns burned on the St. Paul and Duluth road counted 312 dead bodies. There are 217 dead at Hinckley, 17 at Sandstone, 22 at Pine City and 56 between Sandstone and Miller. So far as heard from the forest fires have almost completely wiped out six towns—Hinckley, population 1,200; Sandstone, a quarry town, population 1,000; Partridge and Mansfield, small stations, population 300 each; Shell Lake and Baronette, Wis., population 2,000 each, both lumber towns; besides these, Bayfield and Washburn, Wis., on Lake Superior, from which nothing can be heard, have probably suffered considerably, and also numerous little settlements all through the northern parts of Wisconsin and Minnesota. No names can be obtained on account of the interrupted transportation and telegraph facilities.

A NEW SECT.

Poles and Greeks Form a Creed in Pennsylvania.

Hazleton, Pa., Sept. 3.—American Catholics is the name of a new sect founded here. For a long time there has existed much dissatisfaction among the Poles and Greek Catholics of this section, and advocates of the new sect who were sent into this region found little difficulty in spreading the creed. Sufficient money has been subscribed to purchase old St. Paul's German Church, and services were held there yesterday. Father Dembeski, who was deposed by Bishop O'Hara while pastor of St. Casimir's Church, has been given the option of accepting the pastorate of the new church. The doctrines of the new church have no relation with the Roman Catholic Church dignitaries outside of the Pope.

A week ago he ordered the members of his church who belonged to it to resign, but they all declined to do so, and there is a bitter fight on between the order and Father Spalding.

New York, Sept. 3.—The steamer Saginaw, which arrived here from Santo Domingo last night, brings news from Puerto Plata to the effect that on August 15 the Hamburg-American Packet Company's steamer Calonia struck a sunken wreck in the harbor and will probably prove a total loss. The Colonia is a vessel of 1,479 tons and was built in 1887.

NOT CHASING IT.

But Morton is Waiting to Be Hit By Gubernatorial Lightning.

Rhinebeck, N. Y., Sept. 3.—Shortly before 6 o'clock Friday evening the Hon. Levi P. Morton issued a letter declaring his attitude with reference to the Republican State Convention. He says he is not seeking any nomination from the convention; that he desires to be regarded as a soldier in the Republican army ready to receive the commands of his fellow-citizens of like persuasion in public policy with himself, whether those commands involve leadership or services in the ranks. He says further: "I know something of the resources, the capacities and the needs of the Empire State, and I appreciate the importance, the usefulness and the honor of the great office of its chief executive. Should I be called to fill it, I shall strive earnestly to serve the people with steadfastness of purpose and to faithfully administer a public trust. Finally I aver that if the convention shall prefer to see any other name than mine upon the Republican banner, I shall accept the result without regret or sense of injury, and will give to the successful candidate my hearty and unwavering support."

NORTH RIVER BRIDGE.

The Commission Reports in Favor of a Single Cantilever Span.

Washington, Sept. 3.—The Secretary of War has made public the following statement in regard to the Hudson river bridge at New York: The report of the commission appointed by the President to investigate and recommend what length of span, not less than 2,000 feet, would be safe and practicable for a railroad bridge to be constructed over the Hudson River between New York and Jersey City, finds that a 2,000 foot span cantilever bridge with a pier in the centre of the river would be safe and practicable, and that its cost, including viaduct, would be $26,723,000. The board reports that investigation satisfies it that a six-track, 3,100 foot, single span suspension bridge would be safe and practicable and would, if certain constructions were adopted, cost $35,367,671. Such a bridge would carry six maximum freight trains moving side by side at full speed. A plan is worked out and submitted for a lighter structure suspension bridge, which the board believes would meet every possible demand with absolute safety, at a cost of $30,743,000.

A COLD SHOULDER.

That is What Ida Wells Gets for Her Anti-Lynching Talk.

London, Sept. 3.—The Duke of Argyll, Mr. Jacob Bright, Sir Edward Russell and the editors of the Daily Chronicle and Daily News, of this city, members of the national committee appointed as a result of the anti-lynching movement started by Ida Wells, the colored woman who recently visited this country, denounce the missions and similar objects of Sanford, the colored man who is said to be backed by Birmingham people. The members of the committee class Sanford's missions, etc., as senseless and unauthorized by them. The Duke of Argyll's committee sent three of its members on a tour of the United States in order to investigate the charges made by Ida Wells, but for obvious reasons they refused to authorize any colored man to act in their name.

Indians Getting Ugly.

Boise City, Idaho, Sept. 3. — Word reaches here that serious trouble is breeding in Owyhee County with marauding Indians from the Fort Hall reservation. Attorney C. M. Hayes received notice from Johnson, the game warden of the county, that Indians to the number of 100 or more were camped in the vicinity of Bruneau, and were killing deer and game of all kinds in the most wanton manner. Johnson was instructed to go at once to the scene of action and warn the Indians to desist. The agent at Fort Hall was also notified by Secretary of State Curtis, and he is now en route for Owyhee. When Johnson saw the Indians they acted in such a threatening manner that he left hastily. He reported that the Indians killed a Chinaman, and settlers are becoming alarmed. Secretary Curtis, in the absence of Gov. McConnell, is making an investigation of the matter.

The Pacific Cable.

London, Sept. 3.—The Times, referring to Canada's accordance with the resolution of the colonial conference at Ottawa, calling for tenders for a Pacific cable, says: "With Alexander Siemens's estimate that such a cable could be laid immediately for £2,000,000, leaving a working capital of £50,000, and be finished in three years, or in two for an extra £30,000, the question is entering the stage in which the governments concerned have to decide the part they mean to take. The question, moreover, is not purely a financial one. The main consideration being public utility, the nation which lays the first cable and establishes the first steamship lines may expect to hold a commanding position in the Pacific, and in the efforts the British colonies are making to secure this position for Great Britain they are simply obeying the dictates of self-interest." The Times concludes by urging the laying of the cable.

Samoans Uneasy.

London, Sept. 3.—The Daily News correspondent in Berlin says: "The last mail from Samoa brings a petition to the Emperor for annexation. Amongst the sixty-two signers are two Englishmen and one American. The German warship Falke has been at Berkukanio. The officers visited the fort and the rebels cordially received them. Young Tamasose, son of Germany's former protege, has joined the rebels. The confusion of the Government troops is constantly growing."

Waite Discharged.

Denver, Col., Sept. 3.—In the examination of Gov. Waite on the charge of opening a letter addressed to the police matron, Commissioner Hinsdale decided that it has not been shown that there was a conspiracy to injure any one, that Mrs. Dwyer as one of the matrons had a right to open and read the letter, and that Gov. Waite in reading the letter could not help this, and "I cannot consider him guilty of any offense against the law."

NEW YORK WOODS BURNING.

In All Sections of the State the Fires Are Doing Immense Damage.

Dunkirk, Sept. 5.—The fierce forest fire now raging south of here threatens disaster to everything in its path. Already thousands of dollars' worth of property has gone up in smoke, and the work of destruction continues unchecked, notwithstanding the vigorous efforts of hundreds of men, women and children, who are fighting the flames day and night. The village of Fredonia is practically without fire protection, the water in the reservoir having been nearly exhausted on account of the long continued drought, and should the fire gain headway the entire town will be wiped out. Everything is burning up and there are no indications of rain. This city is dense with clouds of smoke from the fire district, and lake vessels off this port are keeping up a constant tooting of foghorns in order to prevent collisions.

Kingston, Sept. 5.—The fires which are raging in the Catskills have invaded the State Game Preserve in Ulster County, burning down many of the fences. Many of the deer have escaped and are now running wild.

Newburg, Sept. 5. — The continued drought is being severely felt hereabouts. Farmers are hauling water long distances for their live stock from streams already very low, and fruit is falling prematurely from the trees. Flames are consuming the wood on the tops of the Fishkill beacons and Storm King Mountains.

Westport, Sept. 5.—Forest fires are raging in the Adirondacks north of here.

Buffalo, Sept. 5.—The smoke clouds over this city and the lake and river are so dense that navigation is almost impossible. Lake men say they never saw such thick weather before. In Erie County, in the vicinity of Windom, a forest fire is raging, and unless rain comes soon great damage will be done. The fire started in the underbrush, and spread with frightful rapidity. Farmers have turned out in a body to plow the surrounding land and endeavor to check the flames.

CHOLERA.

The March of This Awful Disease Throughout Russian Provinces.

Vienna, Sept. 5.—Numerous members of the Landwehr who attended the military manoeuvres at Bukowina have been prostrated with an illness which resembles cholera. It is stated that merchants who arrived at Nijni Novgorda, Russia, to attend the great fair are leaving owing to the rapid increase of cholera. The population has become panic-stricken by the spread of the disease. In Galicia during the last three days 623 new cases, with 313 deaths, have occurred. In Bukowina during the same period 46 new cases and 25 deaths have occurred.

CAPT. FREITSCH.

He is Traveling in Good Shape Across the Atlantic.

Baltimore, Sept. 5.—The steamer Menantic, from London, spoke the schooner Nina on August 26 1,255 miles from Queenstown. An officer of the steamer who boarded the Nina found Capt. Freitsch alone and in good health. The Captain said he weathered the heavy storm of August 14, during which his rudder split. The Milwaukeean had no fears of reaching England safe.

Brownell, of Burlington; State Auditor, Franklin D. Hale, of Lunenburg. Members of Congress—First district, H. Henry Powers, of Morristown; Second district, William W. Grant, of Barton.

Lieut. Peary.

New York, Sept. 5.—The first news of the Peary relief expedition's steamer Falcon since she left Brooklyn June 20 has just been received by the Brooklyn Standard-Union in the shape of a cablegram dated Disco, July 17, via Copenhagen, September 4. The dispatch states that the Falcon arrived at Disco July 16, and that the party, among whom is H. L. Bridgeman, managing editor of the Standard-Union, were all well. It adds that the Falcon was to proceed northward July 17, the date of the dispatch.

It states that the assignees have received cash amounting to $332,750, and expended $11,842, leaving a balance for distribution, subject to costs and commissions, of $320,907. The assignees have remaining in their possession between $900,000 and $1,000,000 worth of mortgages which are yet to be disposed of.

New York Carpenters Strike.

New York, Sept. 5.—The strike of the organized carpenters of this city against the "lumping" or sub-letting of contracts, which was agreed upon at a meeting of delegates of the four principal organizations on Sunday, went into effect yesterday. The union scale is $3.50 a day, and it is claimed that the sub-contractors pay from $2.50 to $3.25. It was said last night that 1,000 men were out.

Cures Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Bronchitis, and all Scrofulous Humors.

Get the Genuine Article.—The great popularity of "Wilbor's Compound of Cod-Liver Oil and Lime" has induced some unprincipled persons to attempt to palm off a simple article of their own manufacture; but any person who is suffering from Coughs, Colds, or Consumption, should be careful where they purchase this article. The results of its use are its best recommendations; and the proprietor has ample evidence on file of its great success in pulmonary complaints. The Phosphates possess a most marvelous healing power, as combined with the pure Cod-Liver Oil by Dr. Wilbor. It is regularly prescribed by the medical faculty. Sold by A. B.
